

THINKING OF HOME

What does home mean to you?
How have your housing experiences shaped your life?

If we lived in a world where nobody had to ever worry
about the rent,
how would your life
be different?
What would you be doing with your time?

Imagine a world where housing is not a commodity,
but a guaranteed
public good.
What does that world look like,
sound like,
taste like smell like feel like?

These are our visions for the future, and together, we are building that world.

~~ THINKING OF HOME ~~

YAH ZINE ISSUE #1 | 2022

Thinking of Home is a community zine self-published by the Youth Alliance for Housing (YAH). All contents were created and compiled by young people across amerikkka.

Scattered throughout the zine are doodles people on the street drew when asked about the meaning of home.

Art and culture are essential to building community and overcoming barriers. This zine is an outlet for young people to share experiences, resources, and knowledge related to housing through any and all possible mediums- a space for young people to express themselves freely and connect with others.

We define a young person as anyone 25 years and younger.

We define a tenant as anyone who does not have full control over their housing, including unhoused people, folx in temporary housing, renters, and mortgage holders.

Cover by José Davila

Contributors

Artists are credited on the page with their submission. However, many others contributed to the making of this zine. These are the Youth Alliance for Housing members who worked on compilation, research, graphic design, YAH manifesto, and general content that was not a submission.

Ana Peña

Asha Avery

Asia Nurse

Emma Rehac

Frances Hamed

Grace McMickens

Hugo Gonzalez

Isabella Baugher

José Davila

Leanne Nunes

Marissa Campiz

Miles Grant

Mira Gupta

Sedonami Agosa

Shea Shapiro

Sikirat Mustafa

Photo Credits

Derek French @derek_c_french - page 37

Emma Rehac @emmarehac - pages 1, 3, 11, 12, 17

John Bahia @jlubahia - pages 3, 37, 38

Netnarin @onthestreet365 - pages 3, 17, 18

Unknown - page 38

Table of Contents

Introduction to YAH.....	7
YAH Manifesto.....	9
YAH 2020-2021 Photos.....	11
Street Doodle.....	13
Housing Support Network.....	14
Resources.....	15
YAH Community Pop-Ups.....	17
“Home Means Care” Aderinsola Babawale	19
“House the Queers” Je’Jae Cleo Daniels	20
“About the home I dream of, that will someday be mine” ER	21
Visual Art..... Joi Cole	23
Visual Art..... John Dadzie	25
Visual Art..... Marissa Campiz	26
Impact of redlining..... Emma Rehac	27
“Elegy to the Hood” Kayla Morgan	31
“My Morning Commute” Emma Rehac	33
Statistics Trivia.....	35
Word Search.....	36
Youth Power Fest 2022.....	37
Street Doodle.....	39
Submit to the next YAH Zine.....	40
Call to Action.....	41
Music for Housing Justice.....	43

Introduction to YAH

Housing is the infrastructure for all systems of oppression, rooted in racial capitalism and white supremacy.

One of the most prominent gaps within the tenant movement is a lack of dedicated focus on organizing young people- we are directly impacted youth working to fill that gap.

In March of 2020, just days before all NYC public schools shut down due to the COVID-19 pandemic, a small group of highschoolers organized a listening session to elevate the voices of young people in housing justice spaces.

This single listening session evolved into a series of three training sessions. It quickly became evident this was a powerful and much needed community space, especially as the pandemic exacerbated many existing inequities. Following the training series, founding members continued to organize weekly virtual meetings and officially launched the Youth Alliance for Housing in December of 2020.

The Youth Alliance for Housing (YAH) is a collective of young people fighting to radically transform the housing system in amerikkka. Young people have historically, and intentionally been denied voice, autonomy, and power. While youth typically are not the 'head of household' or handling the legal aspects of housing, we are tenants too.

YAH highlights the intersectionality of housing issues and builds the power of young people. At YAH, we envision a world where housing is decommodified, where houselessness does not exist, and where everyone is guaranteed a safe, quality, and permanently affordable home. We fight to transform the housing system into one in which landlords and the real estate industry do not profit off historically marginalized communities, where tenants have power and decision making over their housing, and where young people have an influential voice in shaping the housing system.

We believe those closest to the issues are closest to the solutions. As young people, we will not allow our voices to continue to be dismissed. We know we are experts in our own experiences and are motivated to take leadership in YAH because we know the empowerment of young people is vital to advancing the broader tenants movement.

YAH MANIFESTO

* ALL LINES ARE HANDWRITTEN BY YAH MEMBERS *

radically imagine. Visions for the future, are meant to be BOLD!

We believe that we will WIN!

Center ~healing~.

Turn the Music Up!

ASK "How are you REALLY doing?"
and always respond truthfully

BLM = FTP = I ♥ U (RIP FRED)

BRING SOMETHING INCOMPREHENSIBLE
INTO THE WORLD

Rest, Healing, and Unapologetic Self-love is a radical act of resistance!

YAH MANIFESTO

* ALL LINES ARE HANDWRITTEN BY YAH MEMBERS *

Listen to nature and follow its lead.

Always return to the joy community provides and the love that nobody can take away from us.

Listen with the intent to understand,
not the intent to respond

WE ARE STRONGER
TOGETHER THAN WE ARE AS INDIVIDUALS.

BECOME AWARE OF Your Own
BIAS AND CHANGE THEM

Burn it down

We are NOT allies.

We are comrades and accomplices in our collective struggle towards liberation.

May all our oppressors be overcome by the power of our love and solidarity

YAH

2020-2021

COMMUNITY HOUSING SUPPORT NETWORK

Community members will commit to a monthly recurring donation of any amount. 100% of proceeds will provide monthly recurring housing support to Black and Indigenous femmes 25 years or younger in NYC.

MAKE A RECURRING DONATION

SCAN OR VISIT

tinyurl.com/YAHhousing

OTHER WAYS TO CONTRIBUTE

Venmo @Youth4Housing

CashApp $Youth4Housing

GoFundMe: tinyurl.com/yahGoFundMe

JOIN AND SHARE

Government Support

can be slow and cumbersome, but impactful if the available tools are wielded correctly. If you know what you need, and have the resources to navigate the system, this can help you.

YAH can help you with the process!
tinyurl.com/NycGovResources

Tenants Unions

are groups created by and for local renters to build power and fight for their collective interests. There are many tenants unions throughout New York City, other resources may help point you to your local union!

MetCouncil

has a variety of programs including a telephone hotline and walk in clinic that can help you navigate government support as well as connect you with your local tenants union.

metcouncilonhousing.org/programs

reso

Find your local community fridge:
nycfridge.com

Find your local
mutual aid group:
mutualaid.nyc

urces

JustFix.nyc allows you to easily look up information about your building and file complaints with your landlord. Also links to many other resources to learn more about your building and your landlord

Through ClearPathNYC's free Young Adult Support (YAS) Portal, NYC youth can find programs by filtering their specific needs and location. ClearPath breaks down nyc resources into four categories: housing support, academic support, mental wellness support, and career development. a young person no longer has to search. all of their options are in one place.

clearpathnyc.org

The YAS Portal is a streamlined, and secure way for youth to both search and apply for what they need. with one (or two) clicks, a young person can submit an application to a vetted support program. portal users can upload as much or as little personal information as they choose.

HOUSING SUPPORT POP-UPS 2021

At YAH, we are building community that is rooted in interdependent systems of care.

In 2021, YAH hosted two housing support pop-ups. We plan to continue to host pop-ups bi-annually in the summer and winter. These are mutual-aid events which create a platform for local artists and vendors and fundraise for rental assistance. All prices at our pop-up events are sliding scale/ donation-based. Vendors collect their own proceeds and are asked to donate any % they are comfortable with. All money raised goes toward compensating performers and direct rent support for BIPOC femmes 25 years and younger in NYC. All pop-ups also include free food, clothes, zines, and teach-ins.

HOME

Means

Often

times being {OFFICE}
at home felt unsafe for me, so I'd start to think of running away or going feel valued.

Cafe

When I visualize my safest space

it is being surrounded by care, my family & a comfortable environment where I can be at ease,
cry, breathe be LOUD!
smile, I feel welcomed Dance! Rest & relax.

Home is where I can live
AM ALWAYS HOME
WITHIN MYSELF

Until I find that external space to blossom into

Aderinsola Babawale

House the Queers
Je'Tae Cleo Daniels
@Mx.Enigma

ABOUT THE HOME I DREAM OF, THAT WILL SOMEDAY BE MINE

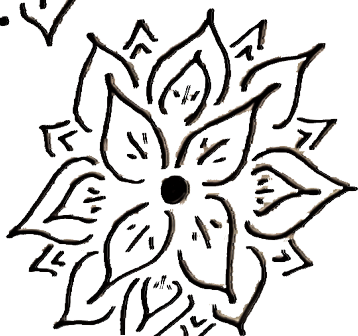

I look forward to coming home

Where the air is warm
the music's loud
and the food is spicy

At home I exhale
I walk around naked with my feet bare and my hair down

Inside my house
my body is at home
I have space to move and moan and stretch and sing
and sleep and scream
and dance - with joy and sadness and anger
and hope

Home is defined by community built on interdependent systems of care
a place where I know my neighbors have my back.

At home I am safe
I feel secure and I know I am supported

I am always growing but my home is a foundation that helps me flourish
Somewhere that wants me to thrive

I don't know where I was born my ancestry is unknown and home is where I can nurture the roots I have planted for myself a place I know I am from

(NYC forever)

EMMA REHAC 06/01/22

Joi Cole @joicoleart

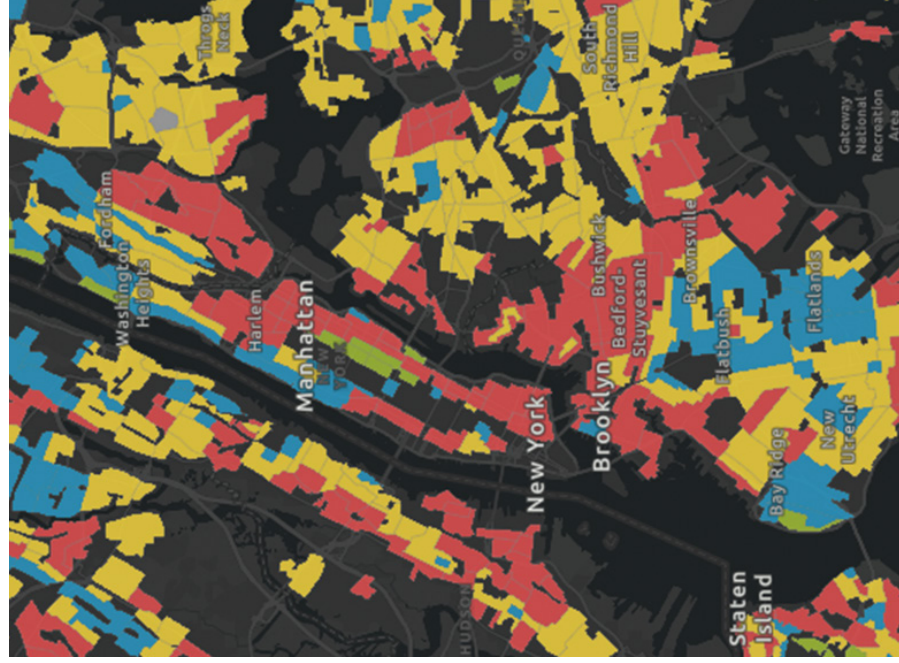

John Dadzie @nvtjvhn

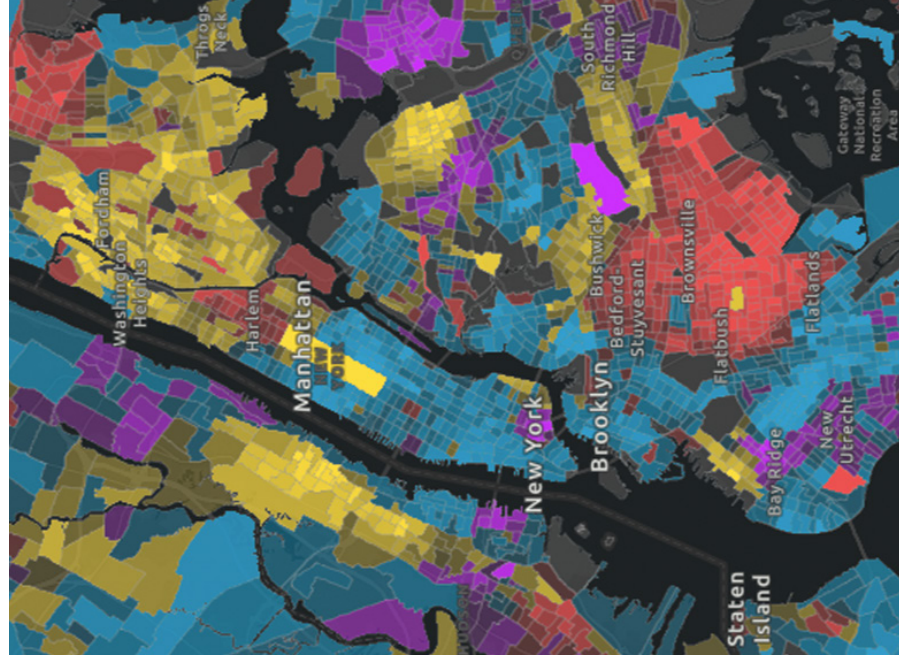

Marissa Campiz @marzble

Historic HOLC Redlining Map

Current Predominant Race

Redlining

Racial and socioeconomic inequities have been deeply ingrained in American urban planning practices. One of the most relevant practices is known as “redlining.”

Redlining was a discriminatory practice in which people living in certain neighborhoods deemed “hazardous” were denied access to capital investment.

After The Great Depression, the Home Owners’ Loan Corporation (HOLC) created color-coded ‘Residential Security’ maps of major American cities. These maps used a four-point rating scale to designate grades to neighborhoods that reflected their supposed mortgage lending risk.

Areas populated by historically marginalized communities were labeled as higher risk and more likely to default on their loans. This meant that American banks continuously denied mortgages to people based on their demographics.

HOLC Redlining Polygons

Grade

Predominant Race (Boundaries)

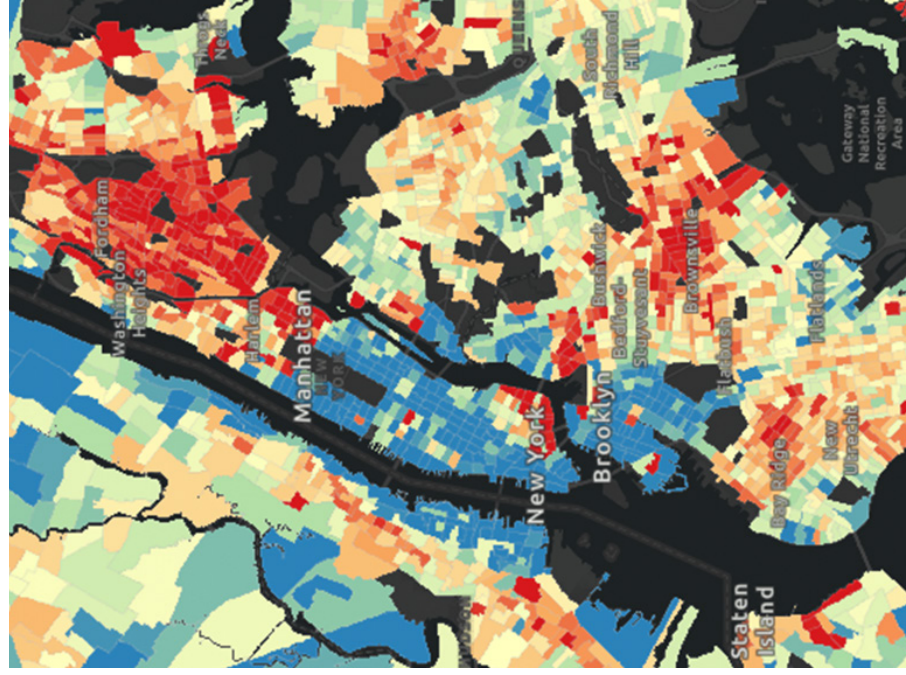

Predominant category

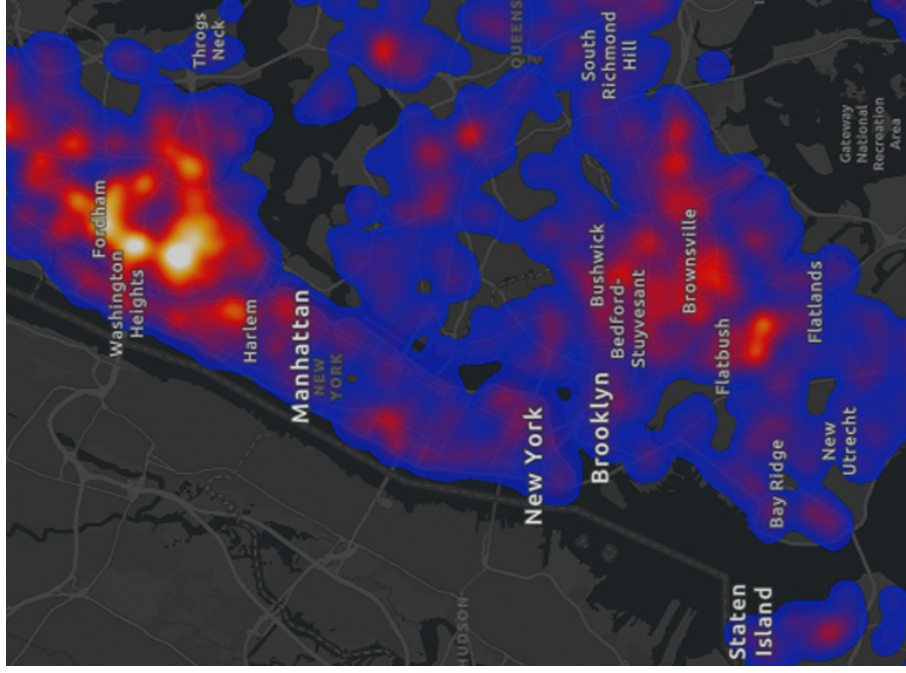

Strength of predominance

Median Household Income

Evictions by Zipcode

Redlining officially occurred in the 1930s-1960s, but we can clearly see its legacy in how our cities are segregated now, in 2022. Across America, 70% of neighborhoods previously classified as the most “hazardous” grade D by the HOLC are predominantly populated by people of color.

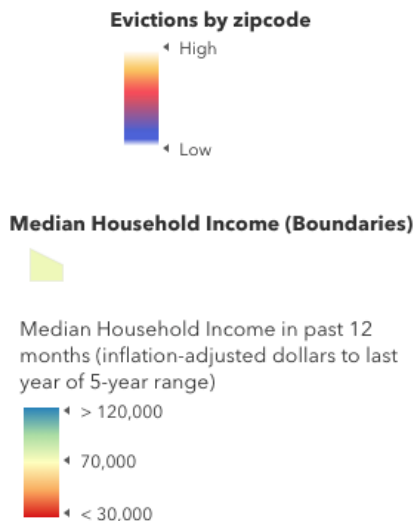

In New York City, public schools are more segregated today than they were in the 1960s. Zip codes and location data are often used by companies and organizations to discriminate against potential customers. Bias against historically marginalized neighborhoods, introduced through redlining, has been written into code and automated in our computers. The history of redlining is also reflected in countless social disparities including eviction rates, internet access, linguistic isolation, householdsize and COVID-19 risk.

Down to the quality of the air we breathe and the water we drink, diverse communities still experience the violence caused by racist planning on a daily basis.

Using data from the Environmental Systems Research Institute (ESRI) Living Atlas and NYC Open Data Hub, we can use these maps to see how the legacy of redlining has left lower income communities of color to face compounding inequities.

Learn more at tinyurl.com/NYCCredlining

Emma Rehac

Elegy to the Hood

The cloudy reign of redlining, fester in striking black,
has been blistering in the obscure building blocks of the hood.

Constructed by the system, with its left hand on the Bible, solemnly swearing for suffrage in our community. And with their right hands, they slit our throats and are exonerated.

They say that housing discrimination ended in 1968. I object. Why are our homes still being bedeviled, terrorized, tormented by the poltergeist of residential segregation?

They embedded the words too “hazardous”, too “declining”, “too risky of an investment”
into the eroding gates of our battered communities.
Cremated our flesh, gushing out of our bloodsoaked bawls for equality—our homes now a burial ground.

Have you seen how the liquor stores clutch their leashes to the cracked pavements of broken dreams? Or how the check cashing services cheat our communities—their malevolence, blazing and smoldering within our people’s wealth.
How they deceive us with fractured promises of financial freedom at the finish line, while instituting economic barriers halfway through the race.

Have you seen how the eerie dusk of industrial plants and factories plagues our breath? How it smothers our Black children with elusive pillows built of lethal toxins?

Inhale—as their graves are dug at birth,
Exhale—as they are lynched,
now stifled with a higher risk for asthma.

Have you seen how different it is on the other side?

I have. I have seen it on the train, migrating into the vast realm of gentrified neighborhoods, wary as my surroundings shapeshift from Black to white.

I lament at the disparity between my home and that of the intruders.
How they flourish and frolic along the border, dividing our two different worlds.

And occasionally, how they travel from their side to ours. How they break and enter into our homes, looting a residential lineage of people's bones, ashes, hearts, who were buried there for several generations. Actually, that's not entirely the truth.
They are not just "people." They are my grandmother, my father, my sister, my aunt.

Do you know how much I mourn as I watch this menacing scene: indie espresso cafes, vegan bagel shops, and hipster millennial bars being built upon the voices of the dead? Beloved treasures of culture, history, and ancestry deteriorating into graveyards?

The foolish ignorance of the gentrifiers, blaring as harshly as a siren. Their acknowledgement of their sins, as hushed as a cemetery. Sometimes, I ponder if they intentionally inflicted this willful blindness upon themselves. And sometimes, I wish for them to wake up.

-Kayla Morgan
@kaylaswordspoeetry @kaylandmorgan

My Morning Commute

My morning commute is only 35 minutes long (if the subways are in my favor) but my home and my high school exist in separate worlds.

From home I walk a half-mile to the train. I pass shelters for the unhoused, methadone clinics, hair braiding parlors, and fast-food restaurants. The flower beds at the base of each street tree are filled with trash, needles, and cigarette butts. At the train station, the stairs wreak like urine, and police officers patrol every entrance. I take the downtown local train. Six stops later, I get off at a clean station with benches and digital advertisement screens. I walk another half-mile to my school. I pass doormxn opening taxi doors, street cleaners, blow-dry only hair salons, and salad bars. The flower beds at the base of each street tree are filled with flowers.

These images capture the social stratification displayed on my commute to school. Through this body of work, I question how our social systems have preserved circumstances of segregation, I study the complexities of gentrification, and I criticize why my commute is accepted as normal.

Emma Rehac

Fall 2019

View full photo essay at emmarehac.com/my-morning-commute

STATISTICS TRIVIA

1) How many NYC public school students are unhoused or in temporary housing? (2022)

- A. 55,000
- B. 87,503
- C. 104,000
- D. 19,000

2) How many students are in the NYC public school system? (2022)

- A. 990,000
- B. 1,060,000
- C. 778,000
- D. 1,600,000

3) How many vacant units are there for every unhoused person in NYC? (2021)

- A. None, all units in NYC are filled
- B. 1 unit
- C. 2 units
- D. 3 units

4) What % of renters in the state of New York spend over 30% of their income on rent? (2021)

- A. 13%
- B. 44%
- C. 52%
- D. 28%

5) Statewide, how many New Yorkers are unhoused? (2021- this number is likely undercounted)

- A. 92,000+
- B. 87,000+
- C. 60,500+
- D. 74,000+

6) In the 50 largest cities in the country, rents have increased by what % in the past two years? (2022)

- A. 9.7%
- B. 22.8%
- C. 20.9%
- D. 15.4%

WORD SEARCH

R	L	A	J	X	M	D	B	G	Y	F	Y	S	G	N
Y	A	R	K	H	N	B	N	T	M	U	Q	E	N	O
G	E	S	D	Q	K	I	I	A	X	T	N	D	G	I
C	H	F	Z	W	N	A	H	W	B	T	E	C	C	T
J	U	I	M	I	X	L	E	Y	R	R	O	D	G	I
K	N	X	L	H	F	I	X	I	X	T	O	G	V	L
X	G	D	J	U	Y	B	F	O	Y	I	F	K	X	O
E	E	L	A	N	O	I	T	A	R	E	N	E	G	B
R	C	V	J	Q	C	W	Y	G	F	R	M	F	I	A
Y	C	I	I	A	Y	T	I	N	U	M	M	O	C	H
M	T	A	T	C	P	C	A	A	C	V	U	R	X	W
B	O	I	D	S	T	P	Z	T	N	P	L	W	O	I
R	O	S	U	Z	U	I	O	E	I	O	P	N	O	K
N	S	Q	N	Q	K	J	O	D	P	K	X	R	O	Z
M	M	Q	T	Z	E	Z	O	N	I	N	G	Z	O	P

Generational

Gentrification

Community

Equity

Abolition

Redlining

Zoning

Eviction

Justice

Y
O
U
T
H

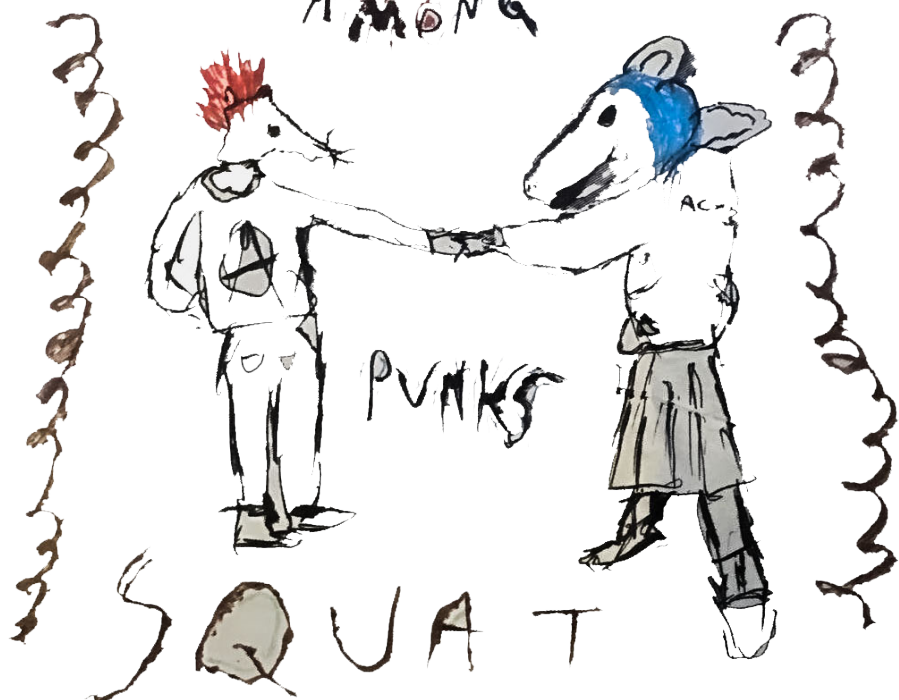

P
O
W E
R

FEST

2022

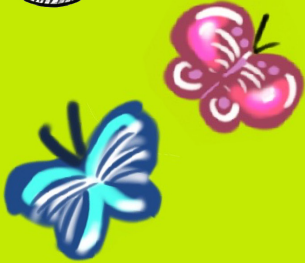

PEACE
AMONG

SQUAT
THE PLANET!!!

THE YOUTH
ALLIANCE
FOR HOUSING

i z i n e

SUBMISSION!

OPEN CALL TO ALL PEOPLE 23 YRS + YOUNGER

YOUTH4HOUSING

tingurl.com/yahzine

CALL TO ACTION

At YAH we believe that culture and policy are direct reflections of one another. Systems of oppression are internal, interpersonal, and institutionalized. Many groups and organizations do the important work of campaigning for laws and legislation, but this work means very little if we are not doing the individual work to transform culture. We must wake up everyday and make conscious and intentional choices to dismantle dominant narratives that maintain harmful cultures- in the ways we think, talk, use our money, address harm, teach our students, and raise our kids. The only way to combat generational trauma is with generational healing.

Join us in building deep relationships, powerful community, and a more radically loving world.

"We are building something that none of us have experienced, but all of us deserve."

- Unknown

JOIN THE YOUTH ALLIANCE FOR HOUSING!

tinyurl.com/YAH-signup

Contribute to the YAH Housing Support Network!
tinyurl.com/YAHhousing | See page 14 for more info

Join the YAH artist and vendor network and be part of future community events!
tinyurl.com/artist-vendor

Contribute to the next YAH zine issue!
tinyurl.com/YAHzine | See page 40 for more info

Help YAH research the intersections between housing and education inequities
tinyurl.com/surveyYAH

THE RENT IS TOO DAMN HIGH!

We are all paying more than we can afford.
Rent inflation is a national emergency, and tenants across the country are taking action.

Share your rent hike story:

 202-670-4290

 ppls.ac/story

What's your boldest vision for a National Tenants' Bill of Rights?
ppls.ac/YAH

MUSIC FOR HOUSING JUSTICE

"Songs create a common language. A place for collective identity. A place for collective effervescence. A place for prophetic imagination. A safe place to land when it gets rough. A rough place to land when the oppressor thinks it's safe. Music confuses the enemy. It has the potential to reach the heart. A song can creep through cracks and crevices, and follow you home at night, and wake you out of your sleep."
- Yara Allen

When you think of home, what do you hear?
Share by adding to our Spotify playlist !
tinyurl.com/YAH-home-playlist

*You can scan the QR codes to listen to each song however, the lyrics may not exactly match.
Many of the songs where the original artist is unknown are freedom songs of the Civil Rights Movement*

RISE UP (CALL AND RESPONSE) By: Charon Hribar & José Vasquez

Rise up we're gonna rise up 2x
We ain't gonna let nobody turn us around Because the people united will stand our ground

Rise up we're gonna rise up
2x
The powers that be can't keep us down We're gonna rise up and turn the world around

Rise up come on and rise up 2x
The people are ready so follow our lead We'll put an end to the violence, the hatred and greed

Rise up we're gonna rise up 2x
Rise up 4x

Scan to listen to Rise Up

NEIGHBOR NEIGHBOR CAN'T YOU SEE

By: Military Cadence
(Call and response housing remix)

Neighbor neighbor can't you see rent cancellation's what we need
Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh
Housing evictions got to go

Neighbor neighbor can't you see
why community housing's what we need
Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh
All the slumlords got to go

Neighbor neighbor can't you see permanent housing's what we need
Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh
the profiteers have got to go

Housing is a human right
that's why today we stand and fight
Ain't no way we're backing down
we're rising up, the time is now

RICH MAN'S HOUSE

By: Mika Wiltz & The Economic Human Rights Choir of
The New Freedom Bus

Went down to the
rich man's house
And I took back what he stole from me
(Took it back)
Took back my dignity
(Took it back)
Took back my humanity
and now it's under my feet
(where?)
Under my feet (where?) 2x
Under my feet
Ain't gonna let no system
walk all over me

Went down to the landlord's house
And I took back what he stole from me
(Took it back)
Took back my dignity
(Took it back)
Took back my humanity
and now it's under my feet
(where?)
Under my feet (where?) 2x
Under my feet
Ain't gonna let no system
walk all over me

Went down to the governor's house...
Went down to the HUD Office...
Went down to the jailhouse...

Scan to listen to
Rich Man's House

AIN'T GONNA LET NOBODY TURN ME AROUND

By: Unknown

Ain't gonna let nobody
turn me around
Turn me around, turn me around Ain't gonna let nobody
turn me around

I'm gonna keep on walkin', keepin on a talkin',
marching up to freedom land.

Ain't gonna let no jailhouse...
Ain't gonna let segregation...
Ain't gonna let race hatred...

Scan to listen to Ain't Gonna Let
Nobody Turn Me Around

MR. AUCTIONEER

By: Leroy Van Dyke

Mr. Auctioneer,
all the people here
We're asking you to hold all your sales right now We're going to survive
but we don't know how 4x

Scan to listen to
Mr. Auctioneer

NO NOS MOVERAN/ WE SHALL NOT BE MOVED

By: Unknown

No, no, no nos moveran! 2x
Como un arbol firme junto al rio
No nos moveran

We shall not, we shall not be moved
2x

Just like a tree that's planted by
the water,
We shall not be moved

Unidos en la lucha, no nos moveran
2x

Como un arbol firme junto al rio
No nos moveran

We're fighting for our rights (and)
We shall not be moved
2x

Just like a tree that's planted by
the water,
We shall not be moved.

No, no, no nos moveran! 2x
Como un arbol firme junto al rio
No nos moveran
Unidos en la vida, no nos moveran
2x
Como un arbol firme junto al rio
No nos moveran

Housing is a human right...
Power to the tenants...
Abolish the police...
Black lives matter...

Scan to listen to
No Nos Moveran/
We Shall Not Be Moved

← English Español →

WHICH SIDE ARE YOU ON?

By: Florence Reece

Come all, you good people
Good news to you, I'll tell
Of how a fusion movement
Has come in here to dwell

Which side are you on boys?
Which side are you on?
2x

They're reaping all the profits
They fill our heads with lies These housing profiteers don't care if we live or die

Don't stand for their evictions
The rent is too damn high
The tenants haven't got a chance unless we organize

Which side are you on boys?
Which side are you on?
2x

We know the free market
Is anything but free
It costs dearly to the planet
And the likes of you and me

I don't need those money lenders
Suckin' on my tit
A little communism
Don't scare me one bit!

Tell me, which side are you on?
Which side are you on?
3x

Scan to listen to
Which Side Are You On?

WOKE UP THIS MORNING WITH MY MIND SET ON FREEDOM

By: Unknown

Well I woke up this morning
with my mind set on freedom
Woke up this morning
with my mind set on freedom
Woke up this morning
with my mind set on freedom
Hallelu (Hallelu)
Hallelu (Hallelu)
Hallelujah

Come on walk now, walk, walk
You better walk, walk
Come on and walk, walk
With your mind on freedom
Come on now, walk, walk
You better walk, walk
With your mind on freedom
oh, oh-oh-oh
You better walk, walk
Come on and walk, walk

Well I'm singing and shouting
with my mind set on freedom
I'm singing and shouting
with my mind set on freedom
I said I'm singing and shouting
with my mind set on freedom
Hallelu (Hallelu)
Hallelu (Hallelu)
Hallelujah

Scan to listen to
Woke Up This Morning...

AIN'T SCARED OF NOBDOY

By: Unknown

I ain't scared of nobody
'Cause I want my freedom
I want my freedom
I want my freedom
I ain't scared of nobody
'Cause I want my freedom
I want my freedom now!

I ain't scared of you dog...
I ain't scared of your jail...

Scan to listen to Ain't Scared of Nobody

ALL THE RENT IS TOO DAMN HIGH!

By: Unknown

All the rent (All the rent)
All the rent (All the rent)
All the rent is too damn high!
2x

Because of greediness
Because of greediness
All the rent is too damn high!
2x

All the rent (All the rent)
All the rent (All the rent)
All the rent is too damn high!
2x

Scan to listen to
All The Rent...

